Case No. 00-6028-CR-DIMITROULEAS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

DAVID G. TRACY,

Defendant.

GOVERNMENT'S OBJECTION TO THE PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION REPORT ("PSI")

The United States of America files this objection to the Presentence Investigation Report.¹

In paragraph 13, the PSI properly calculates the tax loss attributable to the defendant up to the year 1998. However, the PSI neglects to include tax year 1999. According to IRS records the defendant had a taxable income $36,334. Defendant did not file a tax return for this year nor did he file an extension to file. Defendant has a balance due of $7,373.

¹ The lateness of this filing is due solely to the defendant's renegeing on an agreement it had with the government regarding a joint recommendation of sentence. Therefore, the defendant cannot now complain that the objection has been filed out of time.

This amount should be included in paragraph 13. Thus, the total tax loss should be $77,961.

Respectfully submitted,

GUY A. LEWIS
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
